

IGNIS HUT

Outdoor kitchen

Everything, close at hand

Sink, worktop and five-burner grill, brought together in one kitchen.

A connected worktop

A closer view of the preparation, washing and cooking areas.

Preparing and cooking

The stainless steel counter brings the sink and grill together. Cabinet storage sits below, keeping the working line clear and the essentials close.

The grill

Five burners across all three kitchen sizes, with the controls arranged along the front.

Around the worktop

A 5 mm solid stainless steel surface connects the cooking and washing areas.

Stainless steel

304 stainless steel sink and faucet. A continuous working surface.

Steel, inside and out

5 mm solid stainless steel

A continuous worktop above clean cabinet lines.

304 stainless steel cabinetry

Base cabinets, wall cabinets and drawers. Colour selection excludes the border.

Two ways to open

The same kitchen form, seen with a raised panel and a roller facade.

01 / Flip-up facade

The panel lifts above the working space, revealing the kitchen beneath.

Facade visualisations; operation and size availability are confirmed with the order.

02 / Roller shutter

A continuous face of narrow slats is shown partly raised above the counter.

05 / Storage

A place for the essentials

304 stainless steel

Base and wall cabinets, drawers and dish rack share the same material specification.

The complete working line

5-burner grill, 5 mm solid stainless steel worktop, 304 sink and faucet, HIGHGOLD hardware.

Detail visualisation; final construction follows the confirmed order.
